

DONATION RESOURCE GUIDE

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What items are permitted for donation?

Clothing	New & gently used tops, pants, dresses, skirts, professional clothing, jackets, accessories, shoes
Food	Unopened, non-perishable, sealed snack items, boxed pasta, grains, canned goods
Personal Hygiene	Unopened deodorant, shampoo & conditioner, soap, menstrual products, dental hygiene products

Do you want my bedding?

No, we cannot accept any bedding or linens of any kind

What about tea, coffee, and/or other beverages?

Yes, but make sure they are sealed. They are Cherry Pantry giveaways—not worth points—but it’s best if they’re in their original packaging. Loose K-cups can get punctured and messy.

What qualifies as an unopened package?

Anything that is sealed and has some identifying information is welcomed, even if it’s not a full box, like a package or popcorn or an individual packet of Easy Mac.

Can you take my furniture, like an office desk chair?

No, we can’t take furniture but there are some awesome local places that do! Start with Uhuru Furniture right on Broad Street. For information on their pickup services, visit their website.

You still want my shirts with stains or holes, right? Bras and undergarments? My offensive or incendiary t-shirts?

Remember, we hope to sell these items during our Temple Thrift sales. Please only donate what you yourself would buy! Try to avoid torn or ripped clothing, profanity, and soiled or stained items. No bras or undergarments of any kind.

Thank you for helping Temple University Campus be more sustainable!
