Designed by sociologist Leyla Acaroglu and the team at Eco Innovators, Design Play Cards aid the process of thinking critically about sustainability and consumer choices. Created for consumers and experienced design/product-development professionals alike, this game helps players look at the full life-cycle of materials and objects, aiding decisions that can actually effect change.

October 20, 2015 9:30 - 10:50
Digital Scholarship Center, Lower Level Paley Library